

The Best of Linn County 2008

FOOD

Best Hamburger

This category was won hands down by Cookee's Drive-In of Pleasanton. Owned by Doug and Becky Grant, and operated by the late Matt Croan for the most part, the drive in has made a multitude of changes and offers great food, great service and fun galore.

Second place for this category went to Jayhawk Inn of Mound City, a community landmark offering great food, and friendly service.

Best Malt/Shake

According to voters, Cookee's Drive in, Doug and Becky Grants' up-to-date re-do on an old scene, offers the best malts and shakes in the county. The owners delight in keeping their menu fresh and current, making changes as necessary and catering to customers as best they can.

Second place went to Jayhawk Inn of Mound City, who proudly offers delightful frozen goodies, to go with their other wonderful desserts or burgers.

Best Place to Eat Alone

Cooke's Drive In, Pleasanton, and Jayhawk Inn, Mound City, tied it up for the top spot in this category, proving that fun and fabulous food are in demand even when you don't have company for lunch or dinner.
